Café Borgia

« WHEN IN MUNSTER

Café Borgia / Munster, Ind.

Café Borgia's new outpost is a bold upgrade from its original (now defunct) locale in Lansing, Ill. But owners Mike Jesso – he's also chef – and Karen Jesso have kept the same attentive staff, charming mismatched dishes and reasonable prices. The menu remains intact as well, with the pristine chicken Vesuvio, melt-in-your-mouth meatballs and an infusion of flavor in the risotto that we haven't found outside Italy. Pair with a glass of wine and hang around for dessert – most notably the tiramisu and zucotto, a chocolate dome cake filled with white-chocolate mousse. We'll miss the quaint and cozy Lansing digs, but the contemporary décor, trendy lounge and private party rooms are sure to please. Lansing regulars: Bring the SUVs. The new location packs plenty of parking. 10018 CALUMET AVE.; 219-922-8889. ENTREES FROM $10 –Amy Dvorak
